KEEP WARM AND SAVE YOUR LIFE.—Within thirty days from to-day there will be many deaths which might be prevented by warmer clothing. Many a fatal case of dysentery is caused by the want of a woollen undershirt, or an extra blanket at night. The sudden changes of temperature which occur at this season of the year are very trying to the constitution. People with weak lungs quickly feel the effect of them. Frequently the thermometer falls many degrees within a few hours. Not only the feeble, but robust and strong persons suffer from such great variations of temperature. When the weather grows cold rapidly, and the pores of the skin are suddenly closed, the result frequently is a bad cold, which may hold on all winter and terminate in consumption, or a fatal attack of dysentery, or that dreadful disease the typhoid fever.

If the day seems ever so warm and bright, it is safer to wear plenty of underclothing at this season. In the evenings the dews fall, and it grows chilly very suddenly. At all times, even when it feels the warmest, one experiences the difference which is so marked, between the autumn atmosphere and that of summer. There is something more than the mere difference in the temperature, it is a more difference in the electricity. An occasional fire in a room dries the wall and purifies the atmosphere. It is timely attention to all these things would prevent a great deal of the disease and suffering which are among the ills to which humanity is liable.

There are many ready-made coats at the cabinet shops and undertakers—little, short, tiny coffins—which are going to be filled up soon by little children—some of them as sweet, beautiful and child-like as anybody's; but, owing to the fact that the coffins will be left empty, and the little children might be left in their homes to play, frolic, and make those homes bright, it only warm shoes and stockings, which would keep little feet dry, and warm clothes and soft woollen blankets, were more plenty.

Do not bother yourself to hunt up a missionary. Be sure that whenever you send a pair of warm shoes to a needy little child, a good enough missionary, though you do not see him, always travels inside of them. In warming feet and warming bodies you warm hearts also; and besides, it warms your own heart to do this.—N. Y. Sun.

A HUSBAND AND WIFE SEEK DEATH BY LAND.—[From the Dubuque Times.]—A fearful tragedy was enacted at the Planter's House yesterday afternoon. The motives which prompted to the commission of the act are still involved in mystery.

The parties arrived in this city by boat, and took quarters at the Planter's House, where they registered their names as George Baker and lady, of Madison, Wisconsin. Both were well dressed, and apparently used to moving in the best society. The pair remained much of the time in quiet seclusion, but nothing unusual was noticed in their conversation and demeanor. About three o'clock yesterday afternoon, as two gentlemen were passing by the hotel, they noticed a man come out on the outside stairway, and started to come down the street. He had got down about half way, when he missed his footing, and fell head foremost, striking the pavement below with much force. On raising him up, a bottle was found in his left hand, crushed to atoms, while his wrist was cut severely by the broken glass. He was removed to his room, where his wife was found in strong convulsions.

Regarding consciousness, the man stated, to the amazement of all those present, that he and his wife had taken landmanum with the deliberate intention of committing suicide, and ending their troubles together. Of the motives which impelled them to the deed he gave no explanation. He said that he and his wife were in the room together; that she took the landmanum (one ounce) first, and he followed, but fearing that there was not enough of the poison to kill him he had started out to procure some more, when he met with the accident we have mentioned. When the state of affairs became known the best medical talent in the city was summoned, and all that humanity, skill, and science could suggest was done for the relief of the sufferers. The man was soon relieved, but the deadly poison had got too deeply seated in the system of the woman to be eradicated, and she died about 9 o'clock last evening. The husband is now confined in the county jail.

A memorandum book found in the room contains a few entries in a female handwriting, the majority of which are couched in ambiguous terms, and afford but little explanation.—One of these states that the woman was married to George A. Baker, Oct. 1, 1868.

ACCIDENT TO SENATOR SPRAGUE.—Senator Sprague has sufficiently recovered from the effects of his late accident so to be able to return to the city. Considering the severity of his injuries, his progress towards recovery was somewhat remarkable, inasmuch as he has been unable to take out of court exercise for some days past. The accident occurred while the Senator was journeying from Cranston to his summer residence at Narragansett, about four weeks ago. He had ridden about twenty-seven miles on his way, when his horse fell and rolled over in such a manner as to bring the rider's foot under him. Although the shock was severe and the pain intense, the Senator did not realize the extent of the accident until, having risen from the ground, he looked down and saw, to his own horror, the sole of his boot straddled him in the face. He then took hold of his foot, bent it down to its natural position, lifted himself on to the horse, then standing by his side, and rode three miles to his home, arriving at nine o'clock in the evening. Fortunately an eminent and skilful surgeon, Dr. Perry, was enjoining at Narragansett at the time, and under his experienced direction the limb, which was found to be fractured in three places, was properly and speedily adjusted.—Providence Journal.

96 KING STREET, 96

The human form is sublime, but even art has made it more attractive; and now, at this season, when the sunny days of summer are no longer with us, our fairer brethren within the enclosure of the lattice, they may be seen in pleasant and easy attire gracing our streets. Fashions have become so sensational that no lady of Alexandria ventures upon the streets until she has been to LINDHEIMER'S, No. 96, King street, and admired the fair show by crowning herself with one of those elegant, rare and rich BONNETS, the very tip of the fashion, and strange how soon a bud, a rose, or a feather may be added to any color or hue, so that none go who do not leave with a proud walk of defiance that they are in the fashion, because those who have bought there know that Mr. LINDHEIMER'S taste is a success to be unrivalled, and she now triumphs over competitors in keeping the QUEEN EMPEROR OF FASHION.

The goods of this establishment are of direct importation, embracing

SATINS, SILKS,
VELVETS, RIBBONS of all kinds,
Gold and Silver, White and Colors,
POINT AND TREAD LACES,
CLOTH, LADIES' UNDERGARMENTS,
BONNETS, HATS, FLOWERS, STRAW,
LADIES' AND CHILDREN'S GLOVES, &c.

In addition to which may be found an extensive stock of NEW GOODS, among which are gaiters, ready and plain Dress Patterns, suited to taste and age. Do not fear you cannot be suited, for in this establishment is kept every apparel, in part, parcel and quantity, to add the most graceful and stylish grace to any lady's costume, the latest fashions and fashions.
